COUNTY KERRY

Just a short drive from Kerry Airport along the N22, Parknasilla is one of the hidden gems of Ireland. Situated on the furthest reaches of the Atlantic coast on the famous Ring Of Kerry, this location offers breathtaking views and a chance to experience one of the most remarkable landscapes to be found in the British Isles. Because of the effects of the Gulf Stream and its sheltered position, the resort boasts a genial climate where subtropical plants and vegetation flourishes.

Primarily the landscape is the unique feature of the location, offering astonishing views as well as access to beautiful beaches and breathtaking walks. The variety of attractions on offer also differentiates the location from others in the Natural Retreats portfolio.
